REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Tarabu Betseraï

January was a very busy month for KPFK. We opened the year with our first fund drive of 1987, exceeding our daily goal on the first day and getting off to a roaring start. Prince Dixon and the Gospel Caravan kicked the drive off with some inspired music and a tremendous response from the listeners. Ian Masters and National Security followed later that morning with a substantial amount of contributions and our hats go off to Fred Hyatt and the Sunday Opera for a walloping single high total for the day. Thanks also go out to Barbara Sparks who held up the afternoon on our second day and to Johnny Otis for pushing us over the hump on day two with some incredible music, live and recorded. We would also like to thank the group of volunteers who responded so graciously with their time and energy and performed all behind the scenes tasks during the fund drive. Thanks also to the vendors who contributed food for our crew of volunteers. Exact totals of the fund drive are not yet available for the two week period as this article is being written on the third day of the drive. A full accounting will be presented in the March issue of the program guide.

We would like to welcome those of you who subscribed to KPFK for the first time and thanks to those long time listeners' support and with the incredibly expensive costs that are incurred just for the basic operation of this station, it is amazing and also uplifting that this station and the Pacifica Foundation in general has been able to maintain this institution with programming that is interesting and relevant and not bound by criteria determined from sales revenue or opinions of a commercial sponsor. It does however make our task more difficult. KPFK is a needed voice in this community despite our contradictions, our lack of resources and other imbalances of one nature or another. Help keep us on the air by sending in those checks that you pledged during the fund drive.

February is African History Month and a number of exciting programs will be aired during the month representing a wide spectrum of Afro-American History. Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. will highlight some excellent speeches, interviews and cultural offerings. Some of the programs that you will be able to hear include:

- Speeches by Dr. Ivan Van Sertima on the historic role of African Queens and the African presence in America before Columbus.
- An interview with Dr. Na'Im Akbar on the psychology of African American and its origins.
- John Henrik Clarke speaking on Marcus Garvey's impact on our present day thinking.
- Also during the month you will be able to hear morning readings from Afro-American literary classics, and a number of musical features on Rap-
